

Benefits

When you join the TRMA, you are joining fellow industry leaders dedicated to improving and elevating the industry. The TRMA offers various tools and resources to help members stay connected and engaged all year long. Learn more below!

Benefits of Membership

- Best Practices
- Members learn and share relevant industry best practices through conferences, webinars, online communities, and more.

- Networking
- Get to know your peers through our forums, at our Spring and Fall meetings, or by joining a committee.
- Committees include: Benchmarking, Communications, Education, Fraud, Regulatory

, Technology

, Business Affiliate Relationship

, Membership and Program.

- Benchmarking Data, Tools, and Resources
- Members can exchange and access valuable and timely data relevant to our dynamic industry.
- Data includes credit, collections, fraud performance, and payment processing.
- Members also have access to whitepapers, recorded webinars, and pre-conference learning labs

- Regulatory/Legislative Issues
- Members receive regular legislative and regulatory information with a committee dedicated to influencing regulatory reform for the good of the industry and its customers.

Learn More About How to Apply

