

Telecommunications Risk Management Association

Since its founding in 1997, TRMA has served as a professional resource devoted to industry leaders from member companies . Our diverse organization serves as a forum for communication and utility-based risk management professionals while creating a community for members to share best practices, access tools and benchmarking data relevant to the dynamic industry, and balance risk.

